PRESS RELEASE

To: Members of the Public
From: David Barrow
Date: September 9, 2011
Re: August 2011 Building Permits

Building permits slowed during the month of August 2011 within the city of Central. A total of 6 new residential permits were issued. The total valuation of these permits was $1,062,878.

Within these permits, one was issued in Village Lakes with a building valuation of $187,762; two in Morgan Springs with an average valuation of $160,724; two in Burlington Lakes with an average valuation of $159,741; and one on a private parcel of land with a valuation of $234,186. So far this year, a total of 95 new residential building permits have been issued. This is in line with building permits through the same period in 2010 in which 94 new residential building permits were issued.
